

BRAZIL REOPENS GLOBAL 2037 BOND

The Brazilian National Treasury reopened, as of July 29th, its Global 2037 bond, its 30-year benchmark. The operation raised USD 525 mn, of which USD 500 mn was issued in US and European markets, while USD 25 mn was channeled to the Asian market. This tap was jointly managed by Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. as well as BB Securities and Itaú Unibanco acting as co-managers.

The security was priced in 108.63% of its face value, yielding 6.45% p.y.. The semi-annual coupon interest remained at 7.125% p.y., to be paid every January 20th and July 20th up to final maturity at 01/20/2037. The spread over the May 2039 US Treasury reached 195 bps¹.

In order to further develop the Asian Market, the Republic used, once again, the extension known as “Green Shoe”. In this fashion, the National Treasury launches the operation in the US and European compatible timing and chooses whether tapping the Asian Market under pre-defined conditions.

The reopening was successful as more than 250 diversified investors demonstrated interested in the security, reaching a demand much higher than the offer. Note that this opportunity marked Brazil as the first emerging sovereign issuer to tap a 30-year bond in 2009. This fact demonstrated the international community’s confidence in the Brazilian economy during the crisis and poses positives perspectives for the forthcoming.

This issuance is in line with the 2009 Annual Borrowing Plan (ABP), where the External Federal Public Debt (EFPD) guidelines are stated. The external debt management seeks to improve the debt profile and reinforce liquidity in the Republic’s outstanding benchmarks, while consolidating the US dollar denominated yield curve, for example.
